

2009-2011: Previous Attendee Quotes

“Awesome group of people. Very helpful, servant's attitudes genuinely cared about their organization and the people that attended the conference.” – attendee review from the Training Conference held in Nashville, Tennessee in 2011.

“The conference rooms were nice, spacious and comfortable. Sound was a problem only a couple of times. The places provided for socializing were comfortable.” – attendee review from the Training Conference held in Nashville, Tennessee in 2011.

“Again, it was the most awesome hotel and conference area. The gym was almost as big as the gym I go to at home. Service was great!” – attendee review from the Training Conference held in Nashville, Tennessee in 2011.

“Standout presentations included Analytical Thinking and Presentation, Radicalization - Breaking it Down, and the Traditional Organized Crime case study (case studies are very useful).” – attendee review from the Training Conference held in Nashville, Tennessee in 2011.

“This was my first IALEIA conference, and I enjoyed it.” – attendee review from the Training Conference held in Nashville, Tennessee in 2011.

“As a newer analyst with little training, I like the training presentations as they provided ideas of how to be more productive in my job.” – attendee review from the Training Conference held in Nashville, Tennessee in 2011.

“Networking opportunities, gave the ability to attend seminars on different days to avoid scheduling conflicts.” – attendee review from the Training Conference held in Nashville, Tennessee in 2011.

“I like the networking opportunities during the hospitality sessions. I had the opportunity to meet several new people whose cards are now in my rolodex. It's priceless!” – attendee review from the Training Conference held in Nashville, Tennessee in 2011.

“I love the book that was handed out with all the presentations and the schedules. It's a great way to keep everything organized and not have loose notes to keep track of. The biographies of the presenters are also great to have. I would keep this for future conferences.” – attendee review from the Training Conference held in Nashville, Tennessee in 2011.

“Each class was extremely informative and helpful even after 5 straight years of attending.” - attendee review from the Training Conference held in Orlando, Florida in 2010.

“Coming from the Caribbean, it brought to focus and placed in perspective current issues we face that ultimately would help in finding solutions.” - attendee review from the Training Conference held in Orlando, Florida in 2010.

“Staff was terrific - local and the transplants. They deserve high praise for keeping calm and orderly in the heat!” - attendee review from the Training Conference held in Orlando, Florida in 2010.

“This was my first year attending this Conference, but in comparison to other professional conferences I have attended the overall quality was excellent.” - attendee review from the Training Conference held in Orlando, Florida in 2010.

“Having attended several conferences, the organization and helpfulness of the staff was exemplary. Most of the training was timely and pertinent to my job duties.” - attendee review from the Training Conference held in Orlando, Florida in 2010.

“As a new IALEIA member and first year Conference attendee, I liked the overall Conference experience. The workshops I attended provided valuable information applicable to my day-to-day analyst duties.” - attendee review from the Training Conference held in Orlando, Florida in 2010.

“Overall really good topics, and speakers, excellent food, great banquet, nice hotel in good location, a well planned conference.” - attendee review from the Training Conference held in Orlando, Florida in 2010.

“The networking and connection I made with other analysts. This is the best function of the conference.” - attendee review from the Training Conference held in Orlando, Florida in 2010.

“Organization was great. Kudos to the conference coordinators for great sessions and an amazing banquet. Everything was top notch!” - attendee review from the Training Conference held in Las Vegas, Nevada in 2009.

“Good approach with multiple streams of presenters. Impressed by how many people actually stayed for the last day. Also really appreciated the effort organizers put into for organizing social gatherings especially in the early evenings.” - attendee review from the Training Conference held in Las Vegas, Nevada in 2009.

“Well worth my time and money (attended on my own dime and would gladly do it again).” – attendee review from the Training Conference held in Las Vegas, Nevada in 2009.

“Speakers were excellent; topics were broad enough to interest most people; focus of a few workshops on purely analytic topics makes it very different from other conferences.” - attendee review from the Training Conference held in Las Vegas, Nevada in 2009.

“The conference itself seemed to be well organized and all of the instructors were excellent! I really enjoyed the course content for each of the classes that I attended!” - attendee review from the Training Conference held in Las Vegas, Nevada in 2009.

“One of the best I have gone to.” - attendee review from the Training Conference held in Las Vegas, Nevada in 2009.

“Able to network with personnel from other agencies. Vendors were very informative.” – attendee review from the Training Conference held in Las Vegas, Nevada in 2009.

(I liked) “the many options of classes and their applicability. Canadian content was good - provided excellent networking opportunities. I like the break-out style training sessions.” - attendee review from the Training Conference held in Las Vegas, Nevada in 2009.

“I liked the sessions/speakers offered and that those sessions had multiple time slots to attend.” - attendee review from the Training Conference held in Las Vegas, Nevada in 2009.

“Great presentations, met new people.” - attendee review from the Training Conference held in Las Vegas, Nevada in 2009.

“I felt the classes offered were the best of the past three conferences I attended (Vancouver, Boston).” - attendee review from the Training Conference held in Las Vegas, Nevada in 2009.

“Speakers were outstanding and professional. High quality.” - attendee review from the Training Conference held in Las Vegas, Nevada in 2009.

(I liked) “just how well everything flowed and the variety of training options. Plus the networking events were most excellent.” - attendee review from the Training Conference held in Las Vegas, Nevada in 2009.

(I enjoyed) “the combination of a great conference in a location that made it possible to enjoy the surroundings during off times.” - attendee review from the Training Conference held in Las Vegas, Nevada in 2009.